Re: Natural Gas Service – Jerome Village

Dear Randy:

Clearfield Ohio Holdings, Inc (COHI) through its various natural gas utility companies looks forward to supplying all of your natural gas requirements for the above referenced prospective development in Jerome Township, Union county Ohio.

We have the volumes available to serve your approximately 2,200 residential dwellings along with the commercial development areas of the project that you have described to us.

We look forward to working with you and your engineering staff in the near future to develop the installation plan for the necessary facilities required by Jerome Village Project.

Please contact me at your earliest convenience to schedule our initial engineering review.

Sincerely,

Louis P. Bonasso
Vice President Business Development
