Any person in Logan County who suspects housing discrimination is encouraged to do the following:

- Make immediate detailed notes of the experience: date, time, place, names of agents or landlords, what was seen, and what was said.
- Contact the local fair housing coordinator for assistance and submit a complaint in writing. The fair housing coordinator will intake and process the inquiry or may refer the inquiry to an agency with expertise. The caller will be sent brochures regarding housing discrimination, the Ohio Tenant-Landlord Law, and fair advertising guidelines for their information.
- Or, call the nearest Regional Office of the Ohio Civil Rights Commission in Dayton at (937) 285-6500; TTY (614) 752-2391. An investigator will speak with the client and schedule and appointment to discuss the complaint and help file a charge. Complaints may also be filed online on the OCRC website at www.crc.ohio.gov.
- Or, call or write directly to the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD): Chicago Regional Office -Region V, Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity, 77 West Jackson Blvd., Chicago, Illinois 60606-5601. HUD may be contacted at the Fair Housing Complaints "Hotline" at 1-800-669-9777, and the hearing impaired may call TTY 800-927-9275.
- Complaints may also be filed on-line with HUD at www.hud.gov at HUD>Program Offices>Fair Housing>Housing Discrimination Complaint Online Form or by emailing fheo_webmanager@hud.gov Complaints may be filed in the following languages: English, Spanish, Arabic, Cambodian, Chinese, Korean, Russian, and Vietnamese. HUD may be contacted at the Fair Housing Complaints "Hotline" at 1-800-669-9777, and the hearing impaired may call TTY 800 927-9275.

Although the client may not want to submit a complaint, he or she should report any information about violations of the Federal Fair Housing Law to HUD. If the client wants to file a complaint, it must be done within one (1) year of the violation.
